1st Latin American International Kashmir Conference Begins at Montevideo, Uruguay

Montevideo, Uruguay. July 31st, 2007. The 1st Latin American International Kashmir Conference begins today at Montevideo, Uruguay, co-sponsored by the College of International Relations Professionals at University of Uruguay. Scholars, diplomats and intellectuals from various countries are participating in this unique conference. Dr. Ghulam Nabi Fai, Executive Director, Kashmiri American Council Kashmir Center said that Uruguay being the land of democracy, a country that upholds the human rights in all international fora, and President of Mercosur (Common South Market) makes it unique place to have this first international conference. He said that Ambassador Paysee Reyes of Uruguay as the President of the Security Council during its 1251st meeting on November 5, 1965 said that the dispute between India and Pakistan over the State of Jammu and Kashmir involves people who make up 1 one fourth of the population of the world. Therefore, Kashmir issue concerns the whole of Asia. Ambassador Reyes further said that in his view, India and Pakistan should have three commitments to resolve the issue of Kashmir, (i). Ceasefire, (ii) withdrawal of troops, (iii) final settlement of the Kashmiri dispute.

Dr. Fai said that the words of this Uruguayan visionary are as applicable today as it was in 1965.

Those who are invited to present the scholarly papers in the conference include:

Sardar Attique Ahmed Khan, Prime Minister of Azad Kashmir
Mr. Jatender Bakshi, Chairman, Committee for the Return of Pandits
Mr. Ved Bhasin, Editor in Chief, Kashmiri Times
Prof. Angana Chatterji, University of Integral Studies, California
